In this digitally driven age, payroll and HR solutions continue to change and become more complex. That's why CPAs are working side by side with their small-business clients to sort through payroll and HR issues. Coming September 2010, the highly anticipated Payroll & HR Solutions special focus report will cover popular topics like:

- Payroll/HR automation
- Payroll processing software
- Paperless office/document management
- Managing 401(k)s
- Benefit plans

Published as a special advertising section in the Journal of Accountancy, on journalofaccountancy.com and in the CPA Insider e-newsletter, the Payroll & HR Solutions special focus report gives advertisers an exclusive opportunity to participate in an executive roundtable while showcasing their products and services to more than a half-million accounting and financial professionals.

Advertiser benefits include:

- Executive roundtable format
- Exclusive print and digital advertising rates
- Your executive bio, contact information and C-level executive's photograph
- The published supplement in PDF format for your website
- Bonus distribution at AICPA conferences

Position yourself as a valued solution-provider.
