EXHIBIT HOURS: Exhibit hours are established by the AICPA. Unless otherwise noted, exhibits may not be open while the conference sessions are in progress. Exhibit hours are scheduled; however, these times are approximate and subject to change pending the final conference agenda. To maintain the educational integrity of the program, exhibitors are asked to adhere to the exhibit hours indicated. This will enable conference participants to receive the maximum benefit from the conference program and the exhibits.

EXHIBIT SET-UP AND DISMANTLE: Exhibitors are responsible for setting up and dismantling their exhibits during established time periods. NOTE: Early dismantling is not permitted. Firms that dismantle prior to the end of the exhibit time will not be given priority when choosing booth locations at next year's conference or may be denied exhibit privileges at future AICPA programs.

ASSIGNMENT OF EXHIBIT SPACE: In assigning exhibit space, full consideration will be given to competing products and general grouping of exhibits for proper display and comparison. Every effort will be made for the equitable assignment of space. The AICPA reserves the right to relocate any exhibit for the benefit of the exhibitor or for the betterment of the exhibition. No firm, organization, individual or company without assigned exhibit space will be permitted to display or distribute products or literature, or solicit business within the exhibit hall. Exhibitors will not be permitted to assign, sublet or share with others any part of the space allocated to them without written approval from the AICPA.

ELIGIBLE EXHIBITS: The AICPA reserves the right to determine the eligibility of any company or product for inclusion in the exhibition and to reject, eject or prohibit any exhibit, in whole or in part, or exhibitor with or without giving cause. If cause is not given, liability shall not exceed the return to the exhibitor of the amount of the exhibit fee unearned at the time of the ejection. If an exhibit or exhibitor is ejected for violation of these Rules and Regulations or any other stated reason, no return of fee shall be made.

USE OF SPACE: Vendors may use exhibit booths or backdrops, provided they can be accommodated within their individual exhibit space and do not violate fire safety laws. Exhibits must be constructed so as not to obstruct the general view or the view of neighboring exhibits. Interference with the lighting and space of other exhibitors is prohibited. The AICPA reserves the right to restrict exhibits that, because of method of operation, materials, or for any reason, become objectionable. All sound equipment must be regulated so that it does not disturb neighboring exhibits or the conference sessions. The AICPA reserves the right to determine at what point sound constitutes interference with others and must be discontinued. Due to licensing and copyright regulations by ASCAP/BMI regarding music at public meetings, conventions and shows, exhibitors may not play music during the exhibition, either live or recorded.

CHARACTER OF DISPLAY: Any materials not in keeping with the character and standards of the AICPA may not be distributed or utilized by any exhibitor. The AICPA reserves the right to prohibit or evict any exhibit that, in the opinion of the AICPA, detracts from the general character of the exhibition as a whole. This reservation includes persons, things, conduct, printed matter or anything of a character that the AICPA finds objectionable. In the event of such restriction or eviction, the AICPA and its employees and agents shall not be liable for any refunds of rentals or other exhibit expenses.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT: Exhibitors should adhere to professional standards of behavior. All solicitation, demonstration and other promotional activities must be confined to the limits of the exhibit space.

STAFFING: Exhibits should be staffed during the specified exhibit hours by knowledgeable representatives. Exhibitors must supply the AICPA with the name(s) of all representatives who will attend the exhibition. The AICPA will not provide staffing for the exhibits.

BADGES: Exhibitor representatives must wear appropriate AICPA badges at all times in the exhibition hall. The badges will be available at the conference registration desk during the exhibit set-up period.

SECURITY: Although the AICPA and the hotel may maintain a security force, exhibitors are responsible for the safety and security of their exhibits and should consider removing from the exhibition hall or otherwise securing all equipment, supplies and other materials at the close of each conference day.

SHIPPING/DRAYAGE/STORAGE: Exhibitors are responsible for shipping materials to and from the conference. Any and all costs associated with the shipping, drayage and storage of exhibit materials are the responsibility of the exhibitor.

FIRE, SAFETY AND HEALTH: Federal, state and local laws covering fire, safety and health must be strictly observed. Aisles and fire exits must not be blocked by exhibits. Storage of boxes and materials beneath exhibit tables may also be restricted. All materials used in decoration must be flame-proof. Electrical wiring must conform to the National Electrical Code Safety Rules. Please follow the instructions of the hotel personnel and/or the contracted exhibition company regarding conformity with fire, safety and health codes.

CARE OF FACILITIES: Exhibitors or their representatives must not injure or deface the walls or floors of the building. When such damage occurs, the exhibitor is liable to the owner of the property so damaged.

HOSPITALITY SUITES: Hospitality suites must be scheduled so as not to conflict with any scheduled conference activities and be approved by AICPA staff. Publicity for hospitality suites is the responsibility of the suite host and must comply with these Rules and Regulations.

CANCELLATION OF EXHIBIT SPACE: Cancellations received 60 days or more prior to the conference will entitle the exhibitor to a refund minus 10 percent (10%) of the exhibit fee. No refunds will be given on cancellations received fewer than 60 days before the conference. All cancellation requests must be made in writing to Direct Sales via fax 888.316.9536 or email amorris@morrismarketinginc.com.

TERMINATION OF EXHIBIT: In the event the premises where the exhibit is to be held, in the sole determination of the AICPA, become unfit for occupancy or are substantially interfered with by reason of picketing, strike, embargo, injunction, act of war, act of God, fire, emergency declared by any government agency or any other act beyond the control of the AICPA, this agreement may be terminated by the AICPA. In the event of such termination, the exhibitor waives any and all damages and agrees that the AICPA may, after deducting all costs and expenses including a reserve for claims, refund to the exhibitor as and for complete settlement and discharge of all said exhibitor's claims and demands his pro rata amount of all funds paid by all exhibitors.

LIABILITY: The exhibitor assumes entire responsibility and hereby agrees to protect, indemnify, defend and save the AICPA, the owner of the host facilities, and their respective employees and agents harmless against all claims, losses and damages to persons or property, governmental charges or fines and attorneys' fees arising out of or caused by the exhibitor's installation, removal, maintenance, occupancy, or use of exhibition premises or any part thereof, excluding any such liability caused solely by the gross negligence of the owner of the host facilities, its employees and agents.

In addition, the exhibitor acknowledges that the AICPA and the owner of the host facilities do not maintain insurance covering the exhibitor's property and it is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor to obtain business interruption and property damage insurance covering such losses by the exhibitor.

Neither party shall be liable to the other for any special, indirect, incidental, consequential, punitive or exemplary damages or loss, nor any lost profits, savings, or business opportunity. With respect to this agreement in general, the liability of AICPA and its personnel shall not exceed the total amount of fees actually paid to AICPA under this agreement. A claim for the return of fees shall be the exclusive remedy for any damages. The limitation of liability set forth in this paragraph is intended to apply to the full extent allowed by law, regardless of the grounds or nature of any claim asserted and shall survive termination of this agreement.

INTERPRETATION AND AMENDMENTS: AICPA reserves the right to interpret or amend these Rules and Regulations as it deems proper to ensure the success of the exhibition and further the educational purposes of the AICPA.
