

AICPA's Annual Business Law Update

Lawsuits flow freely these days. Stay on top of business law developments to protect your company, firm or clients from common legal entanglements. Learn how to handle current employment issues, resolve business disputes, protect assets and avoid product-liability issues. This course draws on the background of commercial litigators, corporate lawyers, product-liability litigators and tax attorneys to present hot legal topics that managers face daily. It uses case studies based on actual legal situations to provide an interactive opportunity among participants.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Handle current employment issues properly
- Protect patents, trademarks and copyrights
- Limit officer and director liability
- Avoid product liability situations
- Respond to regulatory trends
- Resolve business disputes and protect assets

HIGHLIGHTS

- Current employment laws and regulations
- Patent, trademark, and copyright infringement issues
- Corporate and securities matters
- Developments in mergers and acquisitions
- What to worry about if you are a public company
- Tort reform and product liability
- Business tax issues
- Choice of entity and business unit structure
- Resolving business disputes

WHO WILL BENEFIT

- CPAs in public practice and industry

LEVEL

Update

CPE CREDIT HOURS

Classroom: 8
(Accepted for CMA and CFM continuing education credit)

NASBA FIELD OF STUDY

8-Business Law

PREREQUISITE

Practical experience in industry or public practice

UPDATED CONTENT AVAILABLE

6/15/2010

COURSE ACRONYM

Public Seminar: ABLU
On-Site Training: ABLU