

Mingling for Professionals (Mingle, Mingle)

First impressions really do last a lifetime! Participants will learn the art of making a successful entrance and working the room. Focus will be upon initiating a conversation, appropriate topics for small talk and overcoming "mingle-phobia." Learn to create the most effective initial impression through proper handshaking, eye contact, introductions and appropriate nonverbal communication. Finally, where would a successful mingling event be without teaching participants the etiquette of a graceful escape. This program can also include the secrets to successful networking. This program is available in two-hour format.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Help employees feel comfortable walking into business and social situations where mingling is required to make the most of networking opportunities

HIGHLIGHTS

- Pre-event planning
- Making an entrance
- Greeting people
- Getting into conversations
- Making conversation
- Exiting conversations
- Post-event follow up

DESIGNED FOR

Financial Professionals

RECOMMENDED CPE:

0

PREREQUISITE:

None

EVENT ID:

MP

COURSE LEVEL:

All

FIELD OF STUDY:

Communications

BLI CURRICULUM:

Communication Skills

AUTHOR:

Carol Haislip, Marsha Hall,
Cathleen Hanson

VENDOR:

Business Learning Institute, Inc.

For information regarding on-site training, email aicpalearning@aicpa.org, call 800.634.6780 (Option 1), or visit aicpalearning.org.