

From Controller to CFO: How to Acquire the Skills Needed to Make the Leap

When contemplating transitions in their careers, most individuals are uncertain about how to prepare for making these critical changes. This workshop describes a roadmap of the skills, competencies, and experiences needed to transition successfully from a Controller to CFO.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Describe the four major CFO leadership roles
- Assess your current skills and competencies against those of the successful CFO
- Create a plan for how to increase your credibility, visibility and value in your current position in order to position yourself for career advancement.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Understanding why leadership is a unique set of skills that cannot be acquired simply through greater technical expertise
- How to build a base of credibility and trust
- Using effective influence and relationship building techniques
- How to get support for your ideas and increase your impact on the organization
