

AICPA Advanced Course: Overview of the AICPA Peer Review Program Standards

This one-day, advanced course is designed for experienced reviewers who want to heighten their peer review skills. It is an excellent follow-up to the AICPA's training course, How to Conduct a Review Under the AICPA Practice-Monitoring Programs, and includes an up-to-the-minute analysis of the AICPA Peer Review Program Standards effective January 1, 2012. Enhance your ability to conclude and report peer review findings for system, engagement and report reviews while learning about changes to the peer review standards and the risk-based approach to planning a peer review.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Gain an understanding of the AICPA Peer Review Program Standards effective January 1, 2012
- Increase practice-monitoring expertise
- Enhance ability to reach conclusions on engagement deficiencies and bridge those conclusions to peer review findings

HIGHLIGHTS

- Overview of standards effective January 1, 2012
- Risk-based approach to planning a system review
- Evaluating a system of quality control
- Determining the cause and documenting engagement deficiencies
- Identifying appropriate, practical solutions to system deficiencies
