U.S. International Tax Certificate Program

According to the 2019 Accounting Today Top 100 Firm Survey, 68% of firms are increasing their international tax services.

Here's a scenario:

Your organization is contemplating a global move or already involved in international business.

Or you offer tax services to global clients.

The bottom line is that your tax team needs to understand international laws and transactions.

The AICPA offers a comprehensive international tax certificate to help tax professionals navigate the highly complex, ever-changing world of international taxation.

We see direct benefits for:

- Public accounting firms serving multinational entities
- U.S. entities involved in global operations
- Foreign entities doing business in the United States

The certificate will help your employees master the essential principles, build their knowledge and apply the concepts they have learned.
